Re Phoenix airtel to Bureau 5/20/71.

Captain [REDACTED]

Tucson Police Department, advised on 6/1/71 that ADAM CLYMER of the Washington Bureau of the "Baltimore Sun" was still in town the first part of this week, at which time he told [REDACTED] that the articles he is preparing on the bombings and the alleged involvement of former SA [REDACTED] will be starting the next few days and the series will run for two or three days in that paper.

Former AUSA JOANNE DIAMOS, who is now employed in the U. S. Public Defender's Office in Tucson, advised on 6/1/71 that one [REDACTED] of the Washington Bureau of the "New York Times" contacted her indicating that he is in Tucson investigating for the purpose of writing a story about this matter if he can obtain sufficient facts. He also indicated he has already talked to U. S. District Court Judge WILLIAM C. FREY and Chief Deputy County Attorney DAVID DINGLEDINE. After talking with Miss DIAMOS, [REDACTED] told her that she had not given him any facts which he could use in his story. [REDACTED] did not however, indicate
